

Michelle Quirk, ANP-BC, MSN, RN

EDUCATION

MGH Institute of Health Professions School of Nursing, Boston, MA

BSN, MSN: Adult/Women's Health, September 2008-May 2011

Harvard University, Cambridge, MA

Bachelor of Arts Degree in Biology, Certificate in Health Policy, June 2006

Harvard University Swimming Team; World ranked in 2003 and 2004; US National and Olympic Trials Qualifier

PROFESSIONAL LICENSES AND CERTIFICATIONS

Adult Nurse Practitioner, American Nurses Credentialing Center, Certification #2011009963, August 2011

Registered Nurse, MA Board of Nursing License #RN2264312, February 2010

WORK EXPERIENCE

Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston, MA: Nurse Practitioner; July 2016-present (36 hours/week)

- Serves as primary care provider for a panel of 700+ adult patients
- Member of the MGB Menopause & Midlife Clinical Forum
- Precepts and mentors nurse practitioner students during their clinical rotations
- Served as MGB Ambassador to new hire APPs in March 2026
- Named the 2019 recipient of the MGH Institute of Health Professions, School of Nursing, Exceptional Advanced Practice Clinical/Mentor Award
- Selected as the 2024 recipient of the MGH Institute of Health Professions, School of Nursing, Judith A. Fong Nursing Faculty Prize
- Recruited to a respiratory infection clinic as a clinical nurse leader during the Covid-19 pandemic to manage daily operations, assign and orient staff and supervise infection control measures

Mass General Brigham University of Health Professions, Boston, MA: Faculty Instructor; May 2013-present

- Instructor in the Advanced Practice program in the School of Nursing.
- Serves as seminar instructor to lead weekly two hour round table discussion for 5-7 students, evaluate and provide feedback to students' clinical notes and communicate student progress with faculty and preceptor
- Co-taught Advanced Health Assessment (Fall 2024) and Diagnostics Measures Psychomotor Skills (Spring 2025)

Beth Israel Deaconess Healthcare, Newton, MA: Nurse Practitioner; April 2013-July 2016 (40 hours/week)

- Managed patient caseload of up to 14 patients daily for adult primary care practice
- Conducted complete histories and physical examinations for acute visits, annuals, and follow-ups

BIDHC After Hours Clinic, Needham, MA: Nurse Practitioner; August 2013-July 2016 (Per Diem)

- Diagnosed and treated adult urgent medical problems of non-life-threatening illnesses and injuries

Chadwick Medical Associates, Worcester, MA: Nurse Practitioner; October 2011-April 2013 (40 hours/week)

- Managed patient caseload of up to 16 patients daily for adult internal medicine practice
- Charged with weekend on-call responsibilities for practice
- Worked with medical director to create and manage urgent care practice hours
- Monitored cardiovascular stress tests, performed impedance cardiography and pulmonary function tests, provided women's health services, and responded to patient phone calls
- Skilled in suturing, joint injections, IM injections, starting IV fluids, skin biopsies, cryotherapy and wound care

Project Contemporary Competitiveness, Easton, MA: Registered Nurse; June 2011 – August 2011 (25 hours/week)

- Evaluated and treated campers' injuries and illnesses, administered medications; and identified health problems serious enough to require a physician's attention

Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston, MA: Patient Care Associate; May 2009 – August 2009 (40 hours/week)

- Responsible for assisting nurses with vital signs, glucose monitoring, EKGs, pain assessment, specimen collection, phlebotomy, documenting inputs and outputs, and patient ADLs
- Tasks included setting up trays; assisting with positioning, turning, mobilization, personal care and walking; assisting with admissions and discharges; and responding to call lights

Becker & Associates Consulting Inc., Washington, DC: Research Associate; September 2007 – August 2008

- Responsible for researching, organizing, abstracting, and analyzing scientific, regulatory and business information for commercial clients seeking strategic insight into the development and FDA approval of new healthcare products

Clinical Advisors, New York, NY: Director of Events; February 2007 – August 2007

- Directed events sector, managing all conference/meeting details including client invitations, venue, and travel logistics while remaining abreast of public data, clinical trials, and other pertinent healthcare information

Sapient Corporation, New York, NY: Junior Associate Consultant of Technology; September 2006 – February 2007

- Researched, analyzed, and documented business processes for major pharmaceutical company

Personal Care Assistant, Watertown, MA: May 2003 – July 2006 (20 hours/week); September 2008 (4 hours/week)

- Provided support for a low-functioning, energetic autistic child and his family, assisted with skills development in eating, dressing, bathing and daily life management, while ensuring cleanliness and environmental safety

RESEARCH ACTIVITIES

Second Stage of Labor Research Study, Boston, MA: Co-Principal Investigator; September 2010-May 2011

- Examined factors associated with prolonged second stage of labor and the neonatal outcomes associated with varying lengths of second stage
- Responsibilities included data entry and assisting with data analysis and presentation

Postpartum Readmission Research Study, Boston, MA: Co-Principal Investigator; January 2010-May 2011

- Investigated the effects of maternal diseases, obstetric conditions, and labor and delivery events on hospital readmission through the first comprehensive analysis of postpartum readmission data in the United States
- Responsibilities included requesting and obtaining data from DPH of 9 states and assisting with data analysis

PRESENTATIONS

- Quirk, M “Women’s Wellness and Health Promotion” Podium Presentation, MGH Ragon Building Women In Construction Luncheon, March 2024
- Quirk, M “Menopause: Hot Flashes and Cool Solutions” Podium Presentation, Charlestown Mother’s Association, May 2025
- Quirk, M “Hyponatremia in Primary Care: Assessment and Treatment Strategies” Virtual Presentation, MGB APP Grand Rounds & Pharmacology Series, June 2025
- Quirk, M “Menopause Case Studies”, Podium Presentation, MGH IHP Women’s Health Practicum, November 2025
- Quirk, M “Hepatobiliary Cases” Virtual Presentation, MGH IHP Diagnostics Measures Psychomotor Skills, February 2026